County council unveils three route options to improve A30

THREE potential route options to improve the A30 at Honiton have been unveiled by Devon County Council, as it launches a two-month public consultation this week.

The A30/A303 is one of the more notorious stretches of road in the south of England and provides a main arterial link between London and the South West. Highways England are currently developing improvements to the A358, A303 and A30.

The county council say that the schemes, when constructed, will support growth and contribute to unlocking the economic potential of the region.

The county council is proposing that 8km of the existing single carriageway stretch between the Honiton Bypass and Devonshire Inn, the junction of the A30 with the A303, should be replaced.

The scheme lies within the Blackdown Hills Area of Outstanding Natural Beauty (AONB), a nationally protected landscape, so DCC has adopted

by Peter Hodges
peter@viewnews.co.uk

an environment-led approach in developing options.

The three options are named Blue North, Blue South and Orange and would all cost around £170million.

The 'Blue' routes would see a widening of either the north side of the existing road or the south side, there would then be a new road built, with the potential of the county council buying up property to make way for it.

The Orange route would see the A30 diverted from Honiton east through the Blackdown Hills and would be a completely new build.

A dual carriageway has been ruled out because forecast traffic flows are too low to justify the high costs of construction and because it would require much more land than a single carriageway, resulting in additional adverse environmental impacts on the AONB.

Councillor Sara Randall Johnson, Devon County Councillor for Honiton St Michael's ward, said: "This section of the A30/A303 is in need of an upgrade in order to support not just the local economy but also the economy of the wider South West region.

"An improved link will also ease access to Honiton, which is important for local businesses. It's vital that people take part in the consultation as their feedback will help inform how the scheme is progressed."

Councillor Paul Diviani, Devon County Councillor for Honiton St Paul's ward, said: "I am delighted that Devon County Council is taking such a positive response to our section of the A30.

"It is such an important part of the region's connectivity and the proposals will improve the quality of life for all users, whether on long or short distance journeys."

DCC had a consultation stall at the Honiton Show last week and the public were packed into the tent picking up information to have their say on the scheme.

Councillor Andrew Leadbetter, Devon County Council Cabinet Member for Economy and Growth, said: "The A30/A303 is a vital piece of strategic infrastructure, providing our most direct road link from the South West to London and the South East.

"However, the existing road doesn't meet modern standards and presents a number of challenges. Businesses in the region view the route as unreliable and a constraint to the economy of the area.

"This public consultation is an opportunity for people to express their views on the first stage of the scheme proposals.

"Improvement of the A358 will deliver extra capacity but we also need improvements to this section."

TOP STORIES FROM ACROSS EAST DEVON AND SOUTH SOMERSET

AXMINSTER Skatepark improvements plan moves step forward

THE charity behind Axminster's new skatepark does not anticipate any problems in getting planning permission for the £200,000 plus facility.

During a public meeting at Cloakham Lawn Sports Centre on August 1st, Axminster Skatepark announced that a 20-year lease (at £1 per year) has been agreed with the sports centre – and that a planning application will be submitted before the end of the year.

The current skatepark site will be expanded to span 52 x 16 metres, accommodating 21 features.

Work has been going on behind the scenes since early 2014 to achieve charitable status, which opens the door to possible grants.

Russ Holbert from Maverick Industries, which will build the skatepark, gave a brief presentation at the meeting and took questions from the floor.

SIDMOUTH FolkWeek boosts local economy

SIDMOUTH'S famous FolkWeek has offered a 'great boost' to the local economy during its eight-day run in the town.

Each year sees tens of thousands of folk fans flood into the town to enjoy the festivities and last week was no different, as revellers basked in the hot weather over the festival's weekends and packed the seafront and the town.

Local business owner Steven Kendall-Torry said: "FolkWeek is a great boost to the Sidmouth economy. The many food outlets and pubs see most of the benefits of the thousands of people coming into Sidmouth."

Still to come this summer in Sidmouth is the regatta weekend, which this year will hopefully see a full show from the RAF's crack display team, The Red Arrows.

From the editor's chair No longer the forgotten town

SEATON has suffered some difficult days through the years of austerity.

Many believed it was the forgotten town of East Devon, languishing behind its posh neighbour, Sidmouth.

Some would even argue that had East Devon District Council been based in Seaton, it would have been a very different matter.

But now few can deny that Seaton is definitely on the up and the latest development of the former Grove nightclub bears testament to this. This week we report on the £3 million investment in the town centre site where generations of youngsters sowed their wild oats.

The former nightclub and its surrounds are being converted into a gymnasium, possible high class restaurant, retail units and town houses.

It is said the investment will provide "a massive boost" to the economy of Seaton, so long starved of resources until recent years.

A cloud of negativity hung over Seaton for so long after the demise of the holiday camp and the arrival of Tesco. Many considered the town to be doomed and there is no doubt that the town's main shopping streets suffered badly during this difficult time. But with the opening of the £4 million Seaton Jurassic visitor attraction, the continuing success of Seaton Tramway (now a must for all visitors) and the news that at long last Seaton is to get a recognised hotel in the pending arrival of Premier Inn, the future is looking a lot brighter.

No one, however, is pretending that Seaton's troubles are over; the challenge of directing visitors into the shopping area is still very much on the agenda.

Seaton Town Council and the town's marketing offshoot, the Seaton Town Development team, have worked hard in recent times to organise events that will attract people to the shopping centre, most of which have enjoyed some success.

♦ ALTHOUGH he's been linked to David Cameron's cronyism allegations, it would be churlish in the extreme not to congratulate East Devon MP Hugo Swire on his Knighthood in the former Prime Minister's resignation honours list. You may not agree with his politics, but he has served this country well in various forms and there are many who have been honoured down the years for doing far less.

CHARD Chard to benefit from share of £260k anti-flood scheme

THE A358 at Chard is part of a £260,000 plus anti-flood scheme given the green light by Somerset County Council.

A total of four projects are in the scheme to reduce flood risk in South Somerset.

The four projects, with a total cost of £262,000, will improve drainage, making it easier to cope with severe weather and reducing the risk of flooding.

The Chard project will see installation of drains, gullies and silt traps.

The scheme is funded from a £10million Department for Transport grant to the county council following the severe flooding in the winter of 2013/14.

CREWKERNE New town centre post office delayed

CREWKERNE will have to wait a little longer for the re-opening of its town centre post office.

A grand reopening in new premises had been planned for Tuesday, August 16th, but a Post Office spokesperson has confirmed a delay.

The town centre has been without a post office since January.

A Post Office spokesperson said: "Work to prepare the store for the Post Office still needs to be completed. We do not yet have a date for when work to install the post office can take place."

ILMINSTER Malachi's head shave raises £3,500 in memory of dad

AN ILMINSTER family has been stunned after a fundraising head shave to support the Dorset and Somerset Air Ambulance coined in around £3,500.

Greenfylde First School pupil Malachi Hall came up with the idea of having his locks shaved in aid of the air ambulance and in memory of his dad, who was killed as a result of a car accident.

A Just Giving page has been set up at <http://bit.ly/2ayRUrP> for people wanting to donate.

OTTERY ST MARY Straitgate plans back on the agenda

THE plan for the controversial Straitgate Quarry in Ottery St Mary is once again on the agenda, after Devon County Council announced another public consultation.

The public consultation runs until September 23rd and County Hall are wanting to hear from Devon residents to have their final say on the plans for quarrying in the county for the next 17 years.

The Devon Minerals Plan was developed following several rounds of consultation and informal engagement and examined by a government inspector in May.

HONITON Council unveils three route options to improve A30

THREE potential route options to improve the A30 at Honiton have been unveiled by Devon County Council, as it launches a two-month public consultation this week.

SEATON Redevelopment set to boost town

THE developers of the old Grove site hope their £3million investment will be a massive boost for Seaton town centre trade.

In addition to the footfall set to be generated by the gym, offices, retail units and houses in the original plan – two additional retail units could be created in Fore Street, with a high end 60 plus-cover restaurant at the back. The additional idea is subject to planning application.

Members of the public are invited to the open day on September 3rd between 9am and 12noon.

COLYTON Campaign to save Lloyds Bank

PARISH councillors and representatives of the local church are campaigning to save the Colyton branch of Lloyds Bank from closure.

It was announced in July that Lloyds – the only bank in town – was to close but members of Colyton Parish Council and St Andrew's Church have written to the chairman of Lloyds Bank.

Parish clerk Liz Berry said that the council "strongly opposed" the closure and also wrote to Neil Parish MP asking for his support in the matter.

Police investigate mystery of dead pigeons found on A35

DEVON and Cornwall Police are appealing for witnesses after dozens of dead pigeons were found on a road near Honiton.

A member of the public informed police just after 9am on August 3rd that a number of dead pigeons had been placed in a line along the markings in the centre of the road on the A35 near Windmill Garage and along Battishorne Way and Weatherhill Road.

PCSO Steve Mingo from the local neighbourhood team said: "We have found over 40 dead pigeons in the area and they appear to have been deliberately placed in the road for quite some distance, a few hundred yards apart from each other.

"Nearby we have also found a discarded animal feed bag which we believe was used to transport these dead birds, and a large amount of feathers.

"We are appealing for witnesses and would like to hear from anyone who saw anything strange in the area this morning, or any commuter who spotted these birds on the road to help us narrow down the time of the incident, although we do believe it took place overnight.

"We are also asking for any pigeon fanciers in the area to check their flock to make sure all are accounted for.

"If you have any birds missing please get in touch." The Force Wildlife Crime Team is aware of the incident, as are the RSPB.

If you have any information that can help police with their investigations, contact 101 or 101@dc.police.uk quoting police log 180 for August 3rd.

Brian Potter double appeals to Peter Kay for help

A STRUGGLING hotel owner hopes comedian Peter Kay can save his business after being labelled the double of his Phoenix Nights character Brian Potter.

Keith Monaghan, 59, went on The Hotel Inspector in a bid to improve the fortunes of his two-star Bulstone Hotel.

Hotelier Alex Polizzi gave him a scathing review – but viewers remarked on Keith's uncanny likeness to one of the comedy star Kay's most famous creations.

Phoenix Nights co-star Paddy McGuinness was among those who spotted the similarities on the Channel Five show.

He tweeted: "So now you know why there's no more Phoenix Nights. Brian Potter is on tonight's #hotelinspector" before adding a screenshot of Keith in his wheelchair.

And after the negative reviews Keith has pleaded for Peter to come and meet him in the hope it will revive the fortune of the hotel in Branscombe.

His likeness to grumpy Potter includes thick northern accents, wavy grey hair, chubby facial features and thick glasses.

Keith also recently broke his leg which left him in a wheelchair.

But it is not just his physical profile that have seen him labelled as Potter's double.

Guests had nicknamed him 'Brian Potter' because of his mannerisms and sense of humour – but he had no idea who he even was until the reaction to his television appearance.

Keith, originally from Sheffield, has run the family-friendly hotel with his wife Judith, 64, for 20 years.

He said: "I've never watched Phoenix Nights or heard of Peter Kay until a few months ago, when a guest said I was just like him – my mannerisms, the way I talk, the whole thing.

"I have yet to see the show as I am not really up to date with modern television.

"I understand from the reaction I had though that I look quite like him. I didn't know who Peter Kay was until my wife said he was the chap from Car Share. I have seen that and think he's terrific in it.

"I think we not only look like each other but people say we have the same dry sense of humour.

"We want to make something positive happen out of this disastrous experience, so I would like to invite Peter Kay to the hotel.

"It would be great to have him here so we can be pictured together.

"Guests have always told me I look very similar to Brian Potter, but I did not take much notice as I had no idea what they were on about. Then we were on television and it was all everyone was talking about.

"Now I am in a wheelchair like him it is even worse.

"I fall frequently and am not able to do a lot. I broke my leg in four places so I am in a wheelchair for the foreseeable future."

After the show was broadcast, Keith said he believed the production team had unfairly focused on negative aspects such as the out-of-date decor and the couple's reluctance to adopt Ms Polizzi's ideas.

He added: "This could have killed us as a business. We are concerned, quite frightened actually, because of the bad publicity and bad comments.

"We knew it was going to be controversial as Alex's style is to provoke but there were one or two things which were not founded. It was so negative – there was nothing positive that came out of it."

Mr Monaghan said the hotel hit problems after the container ship MSC Napoli was beached off Branscombe in 2007.

Hundreds of people arrived to scavenge goods which washed up on the beach and there was a slump in tourism.

Peter Kay has yet to respond to his request.

Keith added: "Hopefully we will hear from him soon – it could be just the boost we need."

Youngsters embrace the Olympics

EAST Devon youngsters embraced the true Olympic message when they took part in the Devon Rotary Youth Games last month.

The team joined more than 1,300 young people from across Devon at Simmons Park, Okehampton, for the South West's biggest annual youth sports event.

Team GB shooter Georgina Geikie and England Rugby World Cup winner Marlie Packer were special guests at the event, presenting medals and meeting hundreds of the participants.

The East Devon team took part in six of the 21 sports and won a clutch of medals.

Scooter and BMX teams won gold and there was a Triathlon gold for Elanor Brandon. There were silver medals for skateboarder Bob Hedges, the U18s Netball team and the Mixed High 5s team.

Cllr Paul Diviani, Leader of East Devon District Council, congratulated the team.

He said: "These events are so important to inspire young people and help them discover new talents that they never thought they had.

"Taking up new sports not only encourages them to keep fit and healthy, but we hope will motivate them to continue enjoying these activities throughout their adult life too."

Aaron Clark, an East Devon District Council Community Development Worker, who took the team to the event said: "The Devon Youth Games presented an opportunity for our young people of East Devon to get involved in mass participation sports.

"Taking young people from all sporting abilities and backgrounds, it was a greatly successful day of interaction and teamwork, including several young people from our SWITCH club groups in Axminster.

"Thanks to my colleagues Mark Gerry, for organising the trials and transport to the event, and Jenna Brookman for managing the triathlon team on the day.

"We were very proud of all who took part and we hope to have set a precedent for future events."

Devon Youth Games Chairman John Coates said: "The Devon Rotary Youth Games might not quite be the Rio Olympics but multi-sport events like ours that enable young people to enjoy sport in such a vibrant, fun and friendly environment can be just as powerful an inspiration."

Advertiser's Announcement

Major Award for Munchkins

Local charity Munchkins Miniature Shetland Rescue are delighted to announce that they have been chosen to receive a grant of £10,000 from Support Adoption For Pets, to provide three mobile field shelters at their centre in Colyton Hill, Colyton.

Tammy explained why the provision of shelters is so important to Munchkins. "Although these ponies are hardy, they do appreciate the chance to shelter from the worst of the winter weather. It is particularly important for them to have the opportunity to get their feet dry, as prolonged exposure to mud can cause problems. Also in the summer months they often like to come in out of the sun and away from the flies. We are absolutely thrilled to have received this grant, which will make an enormous difference to the welfare of our rescue ponies."

Pete replied, "Support Adoption For Pets are delighted to support Munchkins Miniature Shetland Rescue. They have a wonderful team under Tammy's vibrant leadership and we wish them all the best in their dedicated work."

Munchkins currently has 27 miniature Shetlands on its books, rescued from neglect, abuse, abandonment or cases where the owners have become unable to look after them. They are pleased to hear from local people who may be able to offer a long-term foster home. All are welcome at the forthcoming open day on Sunday August 14th.

Support Adoption For Pets is the largest grant-giving animal charity in the UK, with close links to Pets at Home.

Brewery up for top national award

DEVON'S largest producer of cask conditioned ales, Otter Brewery, has been shortlisted for the 'The Grichan Partnership Sustainable Business Award' at the 2016 Lloyds Bank National Business Awards.

The finalists were chosen from the hundreds of businesses that entered or were nominated across 18 award categories.

They will now prepare for live presentations next month to an expert judging panel who will decide the overall winners.

Described as "the Oscars of Great British business" by former Prime Minister David Cameron, this year's prestigious awards ceremony will take place on Tuesday, November 15th at Grosvenor House, Park Lane, London.

by Peter Hodges
peter@viewnews.co.uk

The criteria for this category specifically looked for initiatives that have embedded ethical or sustainable business practices, helped staff deliver better customer service, increased market share or customer loyalty and supported strong leadership and management.

These will also have created competitive advantage, contributed to significant growth, transformed the organisation or wider industry, improved overall financial performance and achieved operational excellence.

Since its creation 25 years ago a strong environmental emphasis has helped Otter Brewery define all aspects of its business model.

A series of willow beds are used to naturally treat waste water whilst almost everything else is recycled including spent brewers' grains that help to feed local dairy herds.

The 18-acre site in the Blackdown Hills sits in the middle of an AONB and is home to the UK's first eco cellar which saves over six and a half tonnes of CO2 emissions per year (and more than £27,000 worth of electricity) to chill over 5,000 casks.

Sustainability at Otter also extends to the wider relationships that it has fostered within the community. Assisting local grass roots rugby, cricket, football and rowing clubs has enabled more individuals to get involved with these sports. Extensive charity work directly benefits Devon Air Ambulance, Hospiscare, the Royal British Legion's Poppy Appeal and the Exeter Foundation amongst others.

Tom Broughton, Group Brand Director of the Lloyds Bank National Business Awards, said: "Due to the high number of entries for this year's awards, narrowing the entries down to 140 finalists was a difficult task.

"But through a comprehensive judging process, the selected finalists demonstrate exceptional quality and diversity across a range of business sectors within the UK. We are now looking forward to the next step of the process and meeting some of the finalists face-to-face."

Patrick McCaig, director at Otter Brewery, said:

"This great news comes whilst we celebrate our first quarter century as a family-owned regional brewery supplying pubs, sports clubs and venues across the South West.

"From humble beginnings that really came about through mum and dad's pioneering vision, the brewery today remains true to those engrained family values, strong eco credentials and a desire to support the local community. Everything we do comes from the heart and that is one of the biggest ingredients to successfully maintaining Otter Brewery for now and the future."

■ STAFF at Honiton's Manor House Nursing Home put on a colourful panto for residents recently. The staff acted out Cinderella and activities manager David Foster said: "We all had so much fun. It was a brilliant time — the singing was out of tune and no one seemed to know the script but that made it all the more funny."

Call for blue plaques scheme to be revived

A LOCAL historian has called for a continuation of Honiton's famous Blue Plaque scheme which was started by the town's Rotary Club in 2005.

Tony Simpson said: "Unfortunately Rotary wound up five years ago and there have been no further blue plaques but heritage is a living thing and the scheme should continue since. "It is vital to remember the

by Peter Hodges
peter@viewnews.co.uk

history of Honiton's people and buildings and their relevance today.

"It could also be put into the Neighbourhood Plan to encourage visitors to Honiton's famous High Street."

In addition to leading a Blue

Plaque Town Walk on behalf of the town council for Charter Week, Mr Simpson has also designed a new town walk, which involved U3A members visiting locations associated with Honiton's famous suffragette and 11 times mayor Juanita Maxwell Phillips.

"I got the idea for extending the blue plaque scheme from people doing the walks who asked me what has happened to the scheme and why certain people were not mentioned," he said

One of the names who doesn't have a blue plaque is Captain Thomas Cochrane who in his time was as famous as Nelson and briefly served as Honiton's MP in 1806.

Mr Simpson said: "He was great naval hero not only in England but internationally and was also a leading reformer in parliament."

Another name suggested is Charles Bowerman whose family owned The Kings Arms in Honiton and who went on to become the president of the TUC and one of the first Labour MPs in 1906.

Mr Simpson added: "I have been asked why there is no plaque on the Honiton 'Old Mill' on the corner of Mill Street which dates from the 18th century. It was owned by the Manor of Honiton, then Henry Tooze and John Skinner.

"The iron water wheel was made in Honiton in 1898 at Mickleburgh's foundry.

"Someone also asked why we do not have plaques for more infamous 'Honitonians' such as Bomber Harris who spent three years at Allhallows

School and later led Bomber Command in WW2.

"He was responsible for a controversial area of bombing which resulted in massive civilian casualties.

"There is information in the museum but he would be a good candidate for a blue plaque.

"Then there is Brigadier Ernest Machonchy who also spent three years in Honiton at school.

"From Allhallows he went to Sandhurst and documents just released by the National Army Museum show the leading role he played in crushing the Easter Rising exactly 100 years ago.

"All this is living history and new blue plaques could attract and interest many visitors."

CAB training on offer

A TRAINING course for people who wish to become qualified Citizens Advice Assessors and Advisers in the Honiton area is being launched on September 14th. The bespoke course has a maximum of 12 places available and is free of charge.

Mandy Kenyon, the charity's Deputy CEO, said: "This course is designed for people who wish to volunteer or find a career within the Citizens Advice Service.

"It is also a great CV enhancer and can lead to future career opportunities. In exchange for the free training we ask for a volunteer commitment to our charity of one day a week for two years. Training will begin with the assessment stage, knowing how to interview clients, what questions to ask, how to write up a case and an introduction into the main enquiry areas.

"We find that many people opt to volunteer during career breaks and after retirement as a way of contributing to their communities and keeping an active and interesting social life. The reasons people volunteer vary widely but one common theme appears to be a workout for the little grey cells."

Due to the planned expansion of Citizens Advice telephone services in East Devon, the training will incorporate telephone interviewing techniques as well as face-to-face and web chat.

A basic level of IT literacy is required as is the willingness to commit to attending training courses, observing interviews and doing homework.

■ USERS of the Honiton 55+ Club enjoyed a great day out recently with a grand tour of East Devon in the brilliant sunshine.

TRIP Community Transport provided the vehicles which took centre users to Seaton, where they enjoyed the seafront and its attractions.

The group then went to Otter Nurseries for tea and cake.

John Zarczynski, chairman of club, said: "We all had a really good day and I would like to thank all directors and volunteers who helped on the day."

At Charter Day, the 55+

Club's table top sale raised £205 and Mr Zarczynski said the money will be used to benefit the users at St Michael's Centre, where the club is based and to fund more days out.

Fun for everyone at Axmouth Village Show

VISITORS to the 74th Axmouth Village Show had plenty of activities and attractions to keep them occupied.

Held on July 30th, organisers described it as "a wonderful show".

Show committee chairman Steve Neighbour said: "Good weather and another high turnout meant that the stalls and sideshow attractions on the showground were all kept busy throughout the afternoon.

"The main marquee exhibits added to the entertainment, which culminated in a brilliant display by local horseman and falconer Jonathan Marshall.

by Anders Larsson
anders@viewnews.co.uk

"His performance enthralled the whole arena, with the display of horsemanship and falconry flying acrobatics being top class.

"With our overall objective of fundraising for a heart defibrillator for the local community, the visitors dug deep and should (from early projections) allow us to achieve our objective and more. So a great big 'thank you' to all that attended."

He thanked the numerous locals who helped bring the show to fruition, saying: "I would like to thank them all for their assistance.

"Thanks should also be noted for all the show exhibitors and to the advertisers who allowed us to produce an excellent programme for the day.

"We are always looking for more support on the show committee so, if you're interested in maintaining the progression of Axmouth Village Show into the future, please get in touch, or come along to our AGM in October.

"In closing, we would like to thank all the visitors to the event and look forward to seeing you in 2017."

Action packed week is over

SEATON Devon Air Ambulance Week concluded with two intense days over the last weekend of July.

Fisherman's Gap and the surrounding areas were full of activity, including live music, a vintage car show, Titan the Robot, a mock rescue demonstration in which firefighters came to the aid of a young woman stranded on the balcony of a flat 'on fire', to mention only a few.

The organisers of the week said: "The purpose of the week is to raise lots of money for Devon Air Ambulance Trust, which needs funds to keep two helicopters flying.

"It costs in the region of £4.5 million every year to keep both helicopters airborne.

"This can only be achieved by the hard work of fundraisers and the generosity of the public."

Tens of thousands flock to Honiton Agricultural Show

THE 126th Honiton Agricultural Show once again saw tens of thousands of people pour into the showground to enjoy the famous event.

Arguably the best one-day show in the country, this saw the usual animal displays as well as live music, a young farmers tug of war competition and the Jamie Squibb Freestyle FMX Show.

President of the show Mary Martin said: "I have seen the Honiton Show grow into to probably the best one day show in the country. The success is due to the dedication of the chairman, secretary and treasurer, various committees, stewards, judges, sponsors, exhibitors and volunteers who put in so many hours of hard work. Farming and the countryside continues to face huge challenges, I hope now as we are leaving the European Union things will improve. My chosen charity is Kings House Day Hospice in Honiton who provide nursing support and advice for people living with life-limiting illnesses. I would like to thank the public for coming and sharing this great day with us."

Charity bike challenge

FARWAY: A former village resident has completed a cycling challenge in support of BBC Media Action's life-changing work around the world.

Geraldine Sweetland rode 100 miles on a tiny folding Brompton bike as part of the Prudential RideLondon Surrey100 event on Sunday, July 31st.

Geraldine, who now lives in London, aims to raise £1,000 for her employers BBC Media Action, the BBC's international development charity.

On why she took on the challenge she said: "Following the earthquakes in Nepal last year I saw how BBC Media Action responded fast – enabled by funds raised like this as they are not funded by the licence fee and rely on donations.

"Within hours, emergency lifeline radio programmes were broadcasting across Nepal – sharing vital information about aid, how to stay safe."

Geraldine's route started at the Queen Elizabeth Olympic Park, following a 100-mile route through the capital and into Surrey countryside before heading back to London and finishing on The Mall.

Time capsule tops it off

CHARDSTOCK: The Rev. Geoffrey Walsh installed a time capsule as roof repair work at St. Andrew's Church comes to an end.

The engraved time capsule contains information about the village, St. Andrew's, its congregation and more. Within are the names of the 344 people/organisations who sponsored roof tiles. The Friends of St. Andrews Church raised more than £1,000 by selling sponsorship for the replacement tiles.

Churchwarden Tim Purrett said: "However, without a Heritage Lottery Fund Grant through the Listed Places of Worship Roof Repair Fund, which amounted to £88,300 of the total £122,000 required, the work would not have been able to take place."

Freewheeling and canine partners talks for Probus

■ CHAIRMAN of Honiton Probus Club Lawrence Locke and John Conway from Devon Freewheelers

AXMINSTER PROBUS CLUB: In August, Malcolm Wells spoke on 'Canine Partners', a charity which trains puppies as carers for the disabled.

The dogs are chosen for intelligence and size. Once trained the dogs are allocated to a disabled person who is taught the necessary actions at a purpose-built centre.

250 volunteers and 28 staff run the charity which operates country-wide from two locations in Sussex and Loughborough with a further centre to be opened in Manchester.

The club meets at the A35 Pit Stop, Gammons Hill, Kilmington, on the first Tuesday of each month. Its next meeting, on September 6th, will have a talk by Alan Newcombe on 'Mercy Ships' followed by an optional lunch.

For further information ring 01460 220528.

HONITON: At the July meeting, members were given a talk by John Conway, Transplant Coordinator of the Devon Freewheelers.

He explained how it began in 2009, founded by Chief Executive Dan Lavery, and has grown since.

Freewheelers are staffed by some 70 volunteers and 50 motorcycle riders, providing services including the transportation of essential blood supplies out of hours, blood tissue for transplant matching, donor breast milk and, more recently, organs for transplant.

They also now provide emergency "first response".

Despite annual operating costs of £150,000, they receive no income other than donations and their own fundraising.

The club meets on the last Thursday each month at the Heathfield Inn. Call John on 01404 43392 or visit www.sites.google.com/site/probus\_honiton/home or search Honiton Probus Club.

Seaton beach sculpture still making waves

■ SINCE my wife and I moved to the Axe Valley five years ago we have made Seaton our preferred spot for a promenade several times a week. The front needs brightening up and we would have hoped that painting all of the lamp posts on the front would have been the number one priority, after all Sidmouth did theirs several years ago to good effect. If the posts are left much longer they will succumb to rust. Whoever thought of painting them red needs their brains tested – don't they know that red is one of the worst exterior colours as it fades and degrades quicker than most others. Having said that the authorities got the flower beds rebuilt after the storm damage and they and the gardens are very colourful.

On the August 2nd we visited a cafe on the front for lunch and watched two young children attempting to climb on the sculptures.

The comments made by Gilly Warner-Mills regarding the rings are very apt. Even the children's parents didn't warn them off but they'll be the first to complain or sue if the child gets hurt!

Recent letters regarding the sculpture seem to miss the point, they do improve the front but there are other priorities

R BROOKS, Chard

■ WE also moved to Seaton recently because of its beautiful natural charm. We often walk to the seafront and wonder at its unspoilt landscape. That is until someone saw fit to spoil the view with ornaments that neither blend into the scenery or enhance it but look like cheap, shiny, in your face seaside tat.

This view could not be improved on. Why spoil it? The money has now been spent despite opposition so why not just move the 'wave sculptures' to a more appropriate position as suggested... what about the Jurassic Centre, Windsor or Jubilee Gardens. Perhaps we could make it fun and have a vote to find the best place.

Just admit you got it wrong and do something about it before Seaton becomes known as the place with no taste.

DOREEN ICKE, Seaton

■ ON Wednesday, July 13th I was enjoying an early morning coffee, admiring the sea view when I was 'interrupted' by the ominous arrival of a large lorry laden with a huge metal structure park up on the slipway at Fisherman's Gap.

It was as if a UFO had just landed as, mouth agape, I watched as another van joined the procession... these were the 'fixers' to reposition the mother ship. The few spectators watching stood transfixed. At least a UFO would have flown off, this however has stayed. The whole natural vista of the sea's horizon is now marred by a piece of tin I could hang and dry my knickers on! To add insult to the nonsense writing on the structure is back to front on one of the waves... obviously a lot of thought given to the £17,000 design then!

It beggars belief that this monstrosity has got through the back door. Seaton has been left with 'clutter' and the designer left laughing his head off as he designs yet another great eyesore for some other 'victim'.

At least every resident and visitor to Seaton has use of a free washing line, now where did I put my knickers!

Value of coffee and charity shops

■ TONY McCollum, who is of the opinion that there are too many coffee shops and charity shops in Honiton, has shown to me that he is not the man to front the Honiton Chamber of Commerce, that he is out of touch.

Charity shops are incredibly valuable and popular, all of them in Honiton serve a very real purpose. As for coffee shops, well the latest addition turned an eyesore into a vibrant social hub. I know that this was blamed for the closure of Linleys Deli, however Linleys had itself to blame for its demise due to its location and lack of ground floor seating. The high street is not what it was 20 or even five years ago and I would very much welcome a McDonald's or Subway here to Honiton, though I'm not so sure about a pottery shop! I urge Tony to represent, not represent, all businesses in Honiton.

LUKE MCLACHLAN,
Honiton

Mr Sturch responds to critics

■ TO all the respondents who have been worrying about my health and wellbeing may I just say thank you, I have never felt better. With the prospect of their new Eden before me I cannot wait to crawl out of the apparent hell I have been living in during my past 40 odd years of EU membership.

To Mr Donald Jones of Honiton who, after giving a list of reasons, suggested the word "appeasement" best described any "co-operation" we have with our European partners. Surely this same word applies to the UK's relationship with China, Saudi Arabia and the numerous undemocratically-elected regimes we currently "co-operate" with throughout the world. Glasshouses and stones come to mind here.

To Mr Roger Greaves of Thorncombe, I too agree we should never forget the Somme, a campaign that led to the needless slaughter of a generation to save the pride of generals who were incapable of accepting their plan was flawed. Which is the point I was making about the generals that led us into the recent Referendum campaign but had no plan for the resultant outcome.

Although not agreeing, I have no problem accepting the outcome of the Referendum in England and Wales where a majority voted to Leave but by the same token I'd have a problem accepting it if I lived in Scotland or Northern Ireland where a substantial majority voted to Remain.

Another part of a plan that was not thought through.

DEREK STURCH,
Honiton

Hot Pennies thanks

■ MAY I through your columns record the appreciation of the Hot Pennies Ceremony Committee and express our thanks for the magnificent attendance – the crowds were as big and enthusiastic as any I can recall in 40 years.

As always we are indebted to Dave Retter, our Town Cryer, the Town Council, the Mayor, Publicans, volunteer marshals, Devon Freewheelers and all those who helped on the day. Special thanks too for the shopkeepers who provided the Hot Pennies Window Displays – all were wonderful and choosing a winner proved impossible so we had to reward two – thanks also to Tesco for their support including sponsorship of the prizes.

Flowers fundraised

■ CHRIS's flower plants sold from the driveway of Lyndhurst, Honiton, from May to July raised £437.29 in total for Hospiscare.

Thank you to all of you wonderful people from near and far who have purchased and given donations for my late Christine's plants. May they bring pleasure to you.

Re – tail therapy!

THIS weekend sees the launch of a new venture for Honiton Cats Protection with 7 day a week opening. 14th August will be the first Sunday trading day and to celebrate there will be special events throughout the weekend. The first is a Fashion Show in the shop at 116 High Street, Honiton on Friday from 7pm, with drinks and nibbles – everyone is invited to enjoy this catwalk! Following on there will be fun and games from 9am on Saturday with a barbeque from 11am.

Shop Manager Emma-Louise Lee explained, "The opportunity arose to open more hours and so we decided to try it – after all additional chances for retail therapy means there are more cats and kittens (tails!) we can help. We'd really like to welcome some more volunteers to the team too and being open on a Sunday means there's room for everyone. Anyone who's interested can come and meet us anytime. This weekend would be the perfect chance and we'd love to meet new shoppers and volunteers."

There will be special offers in the shop throughout the weekend from 10% off certain items to buy one, get one free on others.

To find out more contact Honiton Cats Protection Shop on 01404 42312.

ARADA STOVES

Global Expansion for Axminster Stove Producer

Arada Stoves has been going from strength to strength, bucking a national trend with global expansion and sales success in the stove market.

Despite the tough economic climate, the Axminster based wood burning stove manufacturer has developed trading relationships within two further international markets over the past month.

Following a successful visit to the UK, well established stove distributors in Japan, have completed a distribution contact with Arada. The first shipment to Japan will be made in early Autumn which will include new products developed specifically for the Japanese market.

Following product approval for the North American market, Arada have also had confirmation of orders from their American distributor. The agreement comes after rigorous Environmental Protection Agency testing and a lengthy approval process which has taken more than a year to complete.

Both opportunities have come from work carried out earlier this year during international exhibitions in both Verona, Italy and New Orleans in the USA. Following the exhibitions, further distribution enquiries are also still being explored by Arada's sales team.

This news is especially welcome at a time of current uncertainty, particularly with the recent Brexit decision and a general decline in stove sales across the UK last winter.

Commercial director, Mark Brettell commented: "There is a widely held view in the industry that the stove market has declined last year, however we have maintained sales levels and high performance, taking market share from our competitors."

"Building a strong UK sales base complemented by strategic export growth is important to us and these new global relationships are a huge achievement and step forward for Arada, building towards our ultimate goals of becoming a truly international company.

"Everyone should be proud to be a part of Arada- this is great positive news for all of us, and I want to thank all our staff for their continued hard work and commitment."

17th Annual WINGS & WHEELS

HENSTRIDGE • SATURDAY 27 AUGUST 2016 • GATES OPEN AT 10AM
RAISING FUNDS AND AWARENESS FOR DORSET & SOMERSET AIR AMBULANCE

It's that time of year agin!...

AUGUST may seem a long month for harassed parents trying to keep the kids happy during the summer holidays...but, for the small nucleus of volunteers who organise the annual 'Wings and Wheels' at Henstridge, a few more days would be very welcome! This is the seventeenth year for this ever popular show and the same team still remain at the helm as launched the event in 2000. "I was mere youth of sixty when we began it all" quipped veteran commentator and publicist Terry Booker "But retirement is not an option when it's in such a good cause". Over the years, together with colleagues Chris Wood and Joe Williams, the trio have presented well over a thousand aeroplanes and a thousand vehicles to visitors from all over Somerset, Dorset and beyond. And it's all aimed to promote funds and greater awareness for the airfield-based Air Ambulance.

Of course the team can't do it all and, on the day, help is readily on hand from the airfield staff, from local volunteers and from friends and family members who've had their arms twisted. One team, without whose presence the event could not run as smoothly as it does, come from the local Air Training Corps squadrons. The cadets and their officers look after the public car parks and provide 'runners' to support the various key sites. This year the ATC organisation celebrates its historic 75th Anniversary. As a fitting mark to their importance to 'Wings & Wheels' and in gratitude for their support, the organisers are delighted to dedicate to them the afternoon's fly-past salute by the Battle of Britain Memorial Flight.

Regular visitors to the event are quick to comment on how friendly and relaxed is the atmosphere on this former Royal Navy airfield. While safety, as always, is the top priority; the whole team work hard to ensure that it provides the maximum enjoyment for pilots, drivers, exhibitors and many hundreds of individual and family visitors. In the words of the event chief, Chris Wood, "It's a simple approach...if we don't cause problems for people...people don't cause problems for us".

So, Bank Holiday Saturday August 27th is the date for your diary. With prices held yet again at just £5:00 for adults and accompanied under 16s free, it's a family day out that won't require a second mortgage. No post-Brexit increases at Henstridge! It's well sign-posted and is located off the main A30 Sherborne to Shaftesbury road just a couple of miles east of the village.

WINGS & WHEELS

HENSTRIDGE • SATURDAY 27 AUGUST 2016 • GATES OPEN AT 10AM
RAISING FUNDS AND AWARENESS FOR DORSET & SOMERSET AIR AMBULANCE

In the air...

FOR those visitors who may be a little confused by aviation jargon and who aren't sure what to expect at 'Wings & Wheels', it's really quite simple. The event is a 'Fly-in' and not an Air Show, Air Day, Air Festival or Flying Display. So the best advice is to always 'expect the unexpected'. Think of it as a Classic Car Show with wings and you'll be about right. There is no pre-set timetable and it's 'non-PPR' (Prior Permission Required). That is even more jargon which simply means that the pilots can just turn up and request permission to join. They do not have to pre-book and reserve a slot. Of course air-traffic do appreciate a call in advance but it's not essential...this can really help pilots if they see a nice bright day for flying and want to go somewhere different. So there are no strictly timed displays and the next aircraft to drop in over the threshold could be a modern home-build, an ex-World War Two spotter or a unique survivor from the 1930s.

There are many such events all over the world and the UK's summer calendar is full of them. But the Henstridge team and their colleagues from the former 'Vintage Flying' organisation think that have an ace up their sleeve. 'Wings & Wheels' close the air park at lunch time and allow everyone the unusual opportunity to actually stroll among the aeroplanes. This is your chance to take some memorable close-up pictures and to chat to the many pilots who have stayed with their machines. If the weather has been kind across the South then the air park might hold over a hundred vintage, classic and current types. But do remember the unwritten rule.....'take only photographs and leave only footprints'.

The only 'official' spectacle is our traditional salute from the RAF with aircraft from the Battle of Britain Memorial Flight. Over the years we've seen all their aircraft...even the once-in-a-lifetime thrill of the two Lancasters. This time it will be the Spitfire and Hurricane which the team will dedicate to their helpers from the Air Training Corps. The organisers maintain close contact with other display aircraft that might provide a glimpse of something special. Last year saw early morning fly-pasts from the RN Historic Flight's 'Swordfish' and a superb fly-over by the 'Reds'...all ten of them with smoke! Who knows what 2016 might yield?

WIN a Flight in a War Time Tiger Moth

The publishers of View From newspapers are delighted to be able to offer you another chance to win an exclusive and exciting prize. In conjunction with our friends at Wings and Wheels, we have secured a further opportunity for one lucky reader to follow in the slip-stream of the Battle of Britain pilots. You too can take to the same summer skies over Dorset and Somerset. This is your chance to win an AIR EXPERIENCE FLIGHT IN A LEGENDARY WAR-TIME 'TIGER MOTH'.... this much loved little aeroplane was the probably the first aircraft that the fighter-aces encountered as they began their training.

Our previous lucky winners have described it as..."Simply the experience of a lifetime!" Your pilot on the day will be one the top-flight trainers from the airfield-based Tiger Moth Training (www.tigermothtraining.co.uk) and your aircraft will be one of their three immaculately restored World War Two examples based on the airfield. YOU might be the one to be flying over Henstridge on the very same day as the historic Hurricane and Spitfire from the BBMF!

Just answer the simple questions and return to our offices: c/o Rob Coombe, Wings & Wheels competition, View From Newspapers, Unit 3 St Michael's Business Centre, Church Street, Lyme Regis, Dorset, DT7 3DB before the closing date of Friday, 19th August 2016. Winners will be picked at random, editors decision is final.

- Q1. What organisation is celebrating its 75th anniversary?
- Q2. Which BBMF aircraft are scheduled for the fly-past?
- Q3. What time do the public gates open for Wings & Wheels?

17th Annual WINGS & WHEELS

HENSTRIDGE • SATURDAY 27 AUGUST 2016 • GATES OPEN AT 10AM

and on the ground...

THE popularity of 'Wings & Wheels' among the vehicle owners has grown dramatically in recent years. While there may well be countless other classic car and vintage vehicle shows in the region which they can share with their fellow enthusiasts....there are very few that are shared by scores of interesting aeroplanes. It makes for a very appealing three-way traffic, drivers enjoying the aircraft, pilots enjoying the vehicles and the visitors enjoying them both.

The organisers have always been keen to encourage the broadest possible cross-section of wheeled exhibits. Within the inevitable constraints of parking space and site safety, the owner of the modern 'super car' is as welcome as his neighbour with the vintage Rolls. In the same vein, a WWII jeep will be parked between a Morgan 3-wheeler from the thirties and a BMC Austin-Healey 'frog-eye' Sprite from the late fifties. The stewards always try to get club vehicles together in their groups or set aside a few extra yards for line-up of motor-cycles. Special arrangements too are made for the owners of what might be described as 'Trans-Atlantic Chrome'; since the models emanating from Plymouth, Dodge, Buick or Chrysler can't really turn on the proverbial sixpence nor squeeze into the gap between the Bedford bus and the Fordson Tractor.

Nonetheless, despite the hectic hour so ahead of the public opening, everyone enters into the spirit of the occasion and this good-natured co-operation does much to ensure the happy atmosphere of this well established event. Visitors shouldn't expect to see the normal car show with everything neatly aligned like a municipal car-park. Instead, think like the aviation enthusiast and 'expect the unexpected' because it will be in there.....somewhere!

There are two other Henstridge features which are a must for every visitor. First, and what it is all about, is the presence of Dorset & Somerset Air Ambulance. Subject of course to any emergency tasking, the helicopter will come across to crowd-side and give you the chance to meet and greet the crew. This may well be your last chance see G-DORS as her contract expires shortly and her replacement is already undergoing trials to take over this vital role. Second, and of almost equal priority, is the 'Wings & Wheels' catering. The Clubhouse and Marquee offer a variety of meals and snacks throughout the day. But it's the lunch-time specials of Hog-roast and, what is known to the team as 'Joe's Barbie', that are absolute essentials to complete your day.

The gates open at 10:00 am and the airfield closes around 5:30pm... parking is free and there are facilities for disabled visitors, albeit these are somewhat limited by the site itself. For more information please visit www.dorsetcarclub.co.uk, follow us on Facebook and would potential exhibitors please phone 07887 744163 (24hrs).

Vale Vets

Tips to keep your dog safe at the beach

IF you are lucky enough to live near the sea or are planning a trip to the beach with your dog, here are some tips to make sure you all stay safe.

• Don't assume your dog can swim. All dogs have to learn to swim just like us. Some breeds are naturally strong swimmers, but other breeds (such as corgis and pugs) are not. If your dog is not used to swimming then the sea is not the place to start, so make sure he doesn't get out of his depth.

• For some reason dogs do drink salt water, but it doesn't do them any good and can make them vomit, or worse lead to potentially fatal salt poisoning. Signs of salt poisoning in dogs are vomiting, diarrhoea, loss of appetite, lethargy, walking drunk, abnormal fluid accumulation within the body, excessive thirst or urination, potential injury to the kidneys, tremors, seizures, coma, and even death when untreated. Discourage your dog from drinking sea water by providing plenty of fresh water and not over exercising on the beach in the heat.

• Ingesting sand can lead to sand impaction, a medical condition where parts of the intestines are blocked by the sand. Vomiting is the most common side effect; dogs may also lose their appetites, have abdominal pain or become lethargic. Seek urgent veterinary advice if you think your dog may have eaten a lot of sand.

• Consider a life vest if you are planning to swim, sail or surf with your dog. You can buy life vests for dogs of all sizes. Waves and currents can quickly exhaust your dog, especially in cold water. Some life vests also have a handle on the back, making it easy for you to lift your dog out of the water.

• Apply sunscreen to your dog—especially for dogs with thin or pale fur and apply to areas such as the nose and ears.

• Don't forget poo bags so you can clean up after your dog.

• Make sure your dog has a collar, ID tag and is micro chipped, just in case he gets lost.

• Don't overdo it. Running on sand is more tiring than on grass, so don't expect your dog to be able to run and play for as long as he might on his normal walk and start slowly, giving him time to warm up.

• Make sure your dog has a shady area to rest in and remember that sand can be scorching on paws on a hot day so make sure you have a blanket for them to lie down on.

• Be careful to avoid heat stroke – watch for signs of overheating such as excessive panting, drooling, coordination problems, vomiting and/or diarrhoea and collapse.

• If your dog suffers from arthritis or other joint conditions limit the amount of time he spends swimming in cold water. He may think it is great fun at the time, but he will probably be very stiff and sore the following day. They can also get tail strain from using their tail as a rudder when swimming, which can be very painful.

• At the end of the day check your dog over thoroughly for cuts and scrapes, rinse him thoroughly to remove salt and sand from his coat and paws and dry him to ensure he does not get chilled.

Bicton Gardens is a sea of Union Jacks with Proms success

THE BEAUTIFUL gardens of Bicton Park were awash with red, white and blue as 900 people enjoyed a spectacular show for Hospiscare's Proms in the Park last Saturday.

The rain clouds stayed away as the night opened with the big brass sounds of the South West Comms Band who were followed by the gifted voices of India's finest tenor, Anando Mukerjee and the UK's own inspirational Laure Melay. The musical arrangement included songs from musicals and popular operatic arias such as La Traviata and Boheme. The night was also supported by local choir, The Wyndham Singers and compere and soloist Mervyn Hayes, all accompanied by the talented Jonathan Delbridge & Sam Nickels on the grand piano.

The night concluded with a superb build-up of atmosphere as the classics of Jerusalem and Rule Britannia rang out across the Park. An amazing firework finale lit up the stunning setting of the grade 1 listed Italianate gardens.

The event raised several thousands for local charities Hospiscare and Dream-A-Way. Sarah Smith, Events Manager at Hospiscare said "Our sincere thanks to Ann Blake and Valerie Lister, for what has been another amazing night of high quality music and entertainment. Our thanks also to the generosity of the talented musicians and artists who have helped raise so much for our services and to the main sponsors Brewin Dolphin and The Exeter."

Fantastic Flying Folk in Ilminster

THERE are three great folk acts to enjoy at Ilminster Arts Centre on Friday, August 19th in the latest instalment of their regular 'flying folk' sessions. For this edition the line-up showcases two talented soloists and a trio.

Jess Vincent

Jess Vincent is an extraordinary young songwriter from Wiltshire who has a unique and gorgeous voice that has been compared to many (Kate Bush, Iris Dement and Maria Muldaur) but which is so distinctive that it could only be Jess Vincent! Utterly captivating live, she delivers her songs with subtle arrangements, on guitar, baritone ukulele, harmonium and "shruti box", which reveal a maturity that belies her youth, while allowing her vulnerability to shine through.

Hannah Cumming is a young musician whose work has already begun to attract attention. She creates a beautiful sound with her unique mix of singing and fiddle playing and with her sweet toned voice accompanied by the sensitive and percussive tones of her fiddle, Hannah charms her listeners into a world of their own.

Border Tales is a trio from Milverton, near Taunton. Their set features a selection of traditional, contemporary and self penned songs. Border Tales are Jane Newton-Yeo (vocals), Trevor Lloyd (guitars, mandolin, vocals) and Paul Ewings (guitars, bouzouki, vocals). Trevor and Paul hail from Exeter and have played music together on and off for many years. They both live in Taunton. Jane originates from North Devon, lived in Plymouth for many years and now lives in the middle of nowhere on the Blackdown Hills! Their links across the Devon/Somerset border lie behind the origin of their name.

The concert promises an evening of beautiful music, enhanced by the stunning acoustics of the Arts Centre. Advance booking recommended.

Border Tales

Tickets are £10, available from www.the-meetinghouse.org.uk or by calling 01460 54973.

2016 Ilminster Open winners announced

ONE OF Ilminster Arts Centre's most keenly anticipated exhibitions is underway, having opened its doors with a grand prize-giving event on Monday 1st August. The Ilminster Open Competition, which is sponsored by Branston of Seavington, is an exhibition which is open to amateur and professional artists, with selected artworks being displayed at the Arts Centre throughout August.

This year over 140 pieces of art were submitted for the scrutiny of a judging panel consisting of three well-known artists, Kate Noble, Lawrence Nash RWA and Chris Ackerman (who is also an IAC trustee). The prizes were presented by Jacky Gates representing Branston, the exhibition's sponsors.

The competition's overall winner was Jane Burden, whose delicately nuanced textile and ceramic piece 'Does the sun come out, or do the clouds go away', wowed the judges. Second prize was awarded jointly to Peter Monkcom for his witty found object assemblage 'Bolivar', and to Charo Ritchie for her lovingly detailed watercolour portrayal of 'Snowdrops'.

Ceramic artist Sue Smallwood scooped the 3D prize for her sculpture 'Jani', a double-sided portrait head that impressed the judges with its accomplished finish and thought-provoking concept.

Three artists were Highly Commended by the judges, Sue Allen for her mixed media composition 'Somerset Starlings', Imogen Bittner for her atmospheric textile piece 'Winter Beech', and Gary Cook for his watercolour 'Polar Swim'.

Judge and IAC trustee Chris Ackerman, said "Each year the standard of entries gets higher, making judging difficult but very rewarding! We were particularly pleased to see so many 3D pieces, as well as such a wide range of painted media; we congratulate the prizewinning artists on their success in such a strong field of entrants."

There is still one outstanding prize to be announced, the Visitors' Choice award, the winner of which will be revealed at the end of the exhibition. Gallery goers are invited to cast their votes for their favourite artwork - look out for the voting slips and the white ballot box.

The Gallery is open until August 26th, Monday-Friday 9.30am-4.30pm, and Saturdays 9.30am-2.30pm, admission is free.

3D winner, Sue Smallwood, 'Jani'

Winner Jane Burden with Jacky Gates

Joint 2nd, Charo Ritchie with 'Snowdrops'

Joint 2nd, Peter Monkcom with 'Bolivar'

Pulman's Property View

TAYLOR AND HIS TECHNICOLOUR DREAM HOME

Ask Will Taylor to describe his home decor and his answer is unhesitating: sea-inspired style with a touch of sunshine.

"I'm often at my happiest by the ocean with salty, windswept hair, barefoot, with sand between my toes, and nothing to crowd my mind beyond the endless roll call of blue hues. I like to use these dreamy experiences and blue pool tones to inform the décor of my own interior space," explains the author of the gloriously illustrated Dream Decor: Styling a Cool, Creative and Comfortable Home, Wherever You Live.

The book opens the door to beautiful spaces throughout the world, as well as his own home.

Taylor's design ethos certainly explains why his apartment is more evocative of a Mediterranean sunspot than its actual urban London setting.

Brilliant white walls are the perfect backdrop for cheerful splashes of colour provided by collections of framed prints, and there's an array of vivid accessories, from lamps to vases.

"Blue and white is one of my absolute favourite colour combinations and nowhere is it more crisp and vital than in the jewel-bright setting between the Mediterranean and the Aegean Sea," he enthuses.

"Combining these shades in varying degrees of intensity is often a winner for decor, whatever shade of blue you choose for your keynote - whether its deep and cocooning indigo, or refreshing sky blue.

"Also, when I'm working on a scheme, I always try to bring a touch of sunshine to each room with an injection of yellow. The scheme for my home office is based on the colours of a rowing boat I saw in a small fishing village, with its weathered yellow and blue panels, and just sitting in there transports me to that idyllic spot."

by Gabrielle Fagan, Press Association

Colour is Taylor's passion and he describes himself as a "gentleman hooked-on-hue." His hugely successful interiors blog, Bright.Bazaar, which he founded seven years ago, is recognised as a must-visit site for those wanting to learn how to live in a more technicolour world.

"I believe, no matter where you live, you can create a cool, creative and comfortable space to call your own. To me, a well-decorated home is a collection of personal dividends gathered from one's experiences and adventures while travelling, or simply gleaned from day-to-day personal surroundings," says Taylor, whose book includes easy-to-follow guides to achieving a host of chic looks, from Hollywood chic and Italian rustic, to petite Parisienne and Scandi comfort.

"I've lost count of the number of times a new-to-me place, or seeing a routine experience in a new light, has resulted in an urge to bottle up one of those many sensory feelings to bring back home so I can interpret them into my decor. It's lovely to experiment and have fun with interiors and colour."

COLOUR CRUSH

If you're looking to make colour the central element of your scheme, there are two main routes to choose from, advises Taylor. "Either create an all over colour statement, such as wallpaper or paint across all walls, or introduce a lone splash which stands out in a neutral space. Achieve that with a vibrant bedspread draped over white bedding, or maybe an oversized piece of art."

"In my open-plan living and dining area, I've used yellow and dusty pink as accent colours to inject hue into a monochromatic base palette - there's one black feature wall and the rest are white. The abstract art above a white linen sofa was a point of reference for my chosen accent shades."

MEDITERRANEAN MAGIC

"Translating the seductive colours and textures of the Mediterranean into your home is simple," says Taylor.

"Sit vivid shades of azure blue against fresh whites and accent the palette with shots of hot pink, inspired by the abundance of bougainvillea.

"The key ingredients are white-washed walls, weathered wood, terracotta, a burst of yellow, earthenware and painted shutters. A peppering of organic elements - a bowl of citrus fruits and vase of cut blooms, for example, are a perfect finishing touch."

For even more authenticity, he advises introducing textural interest by juxtaposing rough stone walls with cool, tiled floors and soft linen upholstery.

GET WILL'S LOOK: Two shades of blue combine in an appropriately named Pool Mediterranean mosaic tile, £31 per square metre, at Topps Tiles, which could work well on a floor, or as a feature splash-back. The Shutter Store's four-panel classic shutters in bespoke dark blue paint, from £168 per square metre, could ramp up a blue-skies atmosphere. Alternatively, set a brilliant blue sofa against a pure white wall. Loaf's large Pudding Sofa, in a vivid cobalt vintage linen, which starts from £1,545, is a beauty. Make a statement with Ikea's Besta high gloss white storage sideboard, £190, and add a colour pop with the Scandi store's turquoise Lampen table lamp, £2.95. Quirk has a cornflower blue bottle vase, £32 for cut flowers too.

Head joins heart as Alfa Romeo announces UK pricing and specification for all new Giulia

HEAD joins the heart today as Alfa Romeo announces the UK pricing and specification for the highly-anticipated All-New Alfa Romeo Giulia range, with prices starting from £29,180 OTR.

Featuring all new rear-wheel drive architecture, perfect weight distribution, best in class power-to-weight ratios, and innovative engine and driver technologies, the All-New Giulia is every inch a true Alfa Romeo. In terms of style, the All-New Alfa Romeo Giulia stands out for its distinctive Italian design, which is expressed through an impeccable sense of proportions, based on the technical architecture, as well as the sophisticated simplicity and quality surfaces used both inside and out.

In the UK, the All-New Alfa Romeo Giulia model range features five trim levels – The Giulia, Super, Tecnica, Speciale and the range topping Quadrifoglio – and is available in 13 different exterior colour options. The Alfa Romeo Giulia drivers can also choose between four engine variants (two petrol and two diesel), which are all paired to a new eight-speed automatic transmission as standard.

The entry trim level 'Giulia' includes comprehensive standard specification. The most salient standard specification includes new efficient active safety systems, including Forward Collision Warning (FCW) with Autonomous Emergency Brake (AEB) with pedestrian recognition, Integrated Brake System (IBS), and Lane Departure Warning (LDW) – all of which have contributed to The All-New Alfa Romeo Giulia being awarded a prestigious Five Star Euro NCAP rating, with 98% protection result for adult occupants – making it the highest score ever achieved by a car, despite the more severe Euro NCAP evaluation system introduced in 2015.

Rounding out the entry level trim are a host of styling and functional features. Exterior features include 16-inch alloy wheels, LED rear lights, chrome exhaust and aluminium brake calipers. As with all Alfa Romeos, the interior of the car focuses on driving satisfaction with dual-zone climate control, Alfa™ D.N.A. rotary driving mode selector, 3.5" TFT colour cluster instrument panel, UConnect™ 6.5" display infotainment system with DAB plus MP3 and Bluetooth connectivity, 8-speaker audio system, rear parking sensors and cruise control. In addition, the presence of non-invasive technology can be perceived among the instruments which surround the driver, including Giulia's leather steering wheel which houses all main driver controls including the ignition start button. Available with the 200hp 2.0 litre turbo engine, prices for The All-New Alfa Romeo Giulia start at £29,180 OTR.

The full package of standard equipment on the Alfa Romeo Giulia trim level is supplemented on the Super version with exclusive interior and exterior features. Exterior wise, Super trim level adds 17-inch alloy wheels and a dual chrome exhaust tip. Inside, Alfa Romeo Giulia Super features an 8.8-inch 3D navigation with 7-inch TFT display, as well as leather and cloth seat trims in three colour options. The engine range comprises the 200hp 2.0-litre turbo petrol, 150hp 2.2 JTDM-2 and 180hp 2.2 JTDM-2. Prices for the Super range start at £30,750 OTR for the 2.2 litre JTDM-2 150hp version.

The All-New Alfa Romeo Giulia Tecnica adds useful and stylish features for the business user, including power seats, climate pack (cooled glove box, rear air vents and air quality system) and privacy glass. It also adds a driver assistance pack featuring front and rear parking sensors and rear view camera with dynamic gridlines. The engine range comprises the 2.2 litre Turbo diesel with 150hp or 180hp. Prices for the Alfa Romeo Giulia Tecnica start at £30,995 OTR for the 150hp 2.2 diesel.

Building on the Super trim level, drivers wanting an even sportier presence on the road can upgrade to the Speciale trim level. From the exterior this sporty trim level features 18-inch 'Sport' alloys, 25W bi-Xenon headlights, sports front and rear bumpers, a sports diffuser, dual chrome exhaust and red brake calipers. Inside the cabin, the Alfa Romeo Giulia Speciale features aluminium metal sport pedals and footrest, heated and powered front seats, heated steering wheel and leather sports seats. At £34,150 OTR, Alfa Romeo Giulia Speciale comes fitted with the 2.2 JTDM-2 180hp engine.

The top-of-the-range Quadrifoglio trim level adds functional and styling contents to the standard specification, enhancing its sophistication and high-performance feel: these include leather and Alcantara upholstered sports seats, sports steering wheel with red ignition button, carbon fibre inserts for the interior and aerodynamic exterior spoilers, comfort and safety features that also include BSM (Blind Spot Monitoring) technology and rear camera as well as 35W Xenon headlights with AFS technology. In addition, it features technical gear designed specifically to maximise dynamic performance: the AlfaTM Active Aero Splitter system, the dedicated braking system, the AlfaTM D.N.A. Pro selector with Race mode that communicates with the AlfaTM Chassis Domain Control (CDC) system, and AlfaTM Torque Vectoring. Powered by a new 510hp, 600Nm Bi-Turbo V6 petrol engine, with an eight-speed paddle shift automatic transmission as standard, pricing for the Giulia Quadrifoglio super saloon start at £59,000 OTR.

The All-New Alfa Romeo Giulia range will go on sale in the UK later this year.

Nissan unveils world's first solid-oxide fuel cell vehicle

NISSAN Motor Co., Ltd. today revealed the world's first Solid Oxide Fuel-Cell (SOFC)-powered prototype vehicle in Brazil that runs on bio-ethanol electric power.

The breakthrough model, an all-new light-commercial vehicle, can rely on multiple fuels, including ethanol and natural gas, to produce high-efficiency electricity as a power source.

Nissan president and CEO Carlos Ghosn said: "The e-Bio Fuel-Cell offers eco-friendly transportation and creates opportunities for regional energy production...all the while supporting the existing infrastructure. In the future, the e-Bio Fuel-Cell will become even more user-friendly. Ethanol-blended water is easier and safer to handle than most other fuels. Without the need to create new infrastructure, it has great potential to drive market growth."

The fuel cell prototype forms part of Nissan's ongoing commitment to the development of zero-emission vehicles and new automotive technologies including autonomous drive systems and connectivity. Nissan already sells the world's highest-volume zero-emission car, the LEAF, and is pioneering Intelligent Mobility systems that will be deployed in a range of vehicles over coming years.

In this latest zero-emission development, the e-Bio Fuel-Cell prototype vehicle runs on 100-percent ethanol to charge a 24kWh battery which enables a cruising range of more than 600km (373 miles). Nissan will conduct further field tests on public roads in Brazil using the prototype.

Research and development of the e-Bio Fuel-Cell was announced by Nissan in June in Yokohama. The powertrain is clean, highly-efficient, easy to supply, and runs on 100-percent ethanol or ethanol-blended water. Its carbon-neutral emissions are as clean as the atmosphere, which will be the part of natural carbon car. Also, the e-Bio Fuel-Cell offers the brisk acceleration and silent driving of an EV, along with its low-running costs, while boasting the driving range of a gasoline-engine vehicle.

Bio-ethanol fuels are mainly sourced from sugarcane and corn. These fuels are widely available in countries in North and South America, which feature widely-established infrastructure. Due to the easy availability of ethanol and low combustibility of ethanol-blended water, the system is not heavily dependent or restricted by the existing charging infrastructure, making it easy to introduce to the market. In the future, people may only need to stop by small retail stores to buy fuel off the shelf.

In pursuit of realizing a zero-emission and zero-fatality society for cars, Nissan continues to promote vehicle intelligence and electrification. Nissan's brand promise of "Innovation That Excites" is delivered with "Nissan Intelligent Mobility", which focuses on how cars are powered, driven and integrated into society through a more enjoyable driving experience.

The e-Bio Fuel-Cell will realize the concept of "Nissan Intelligent Power," promoting greater efficiency and electrification of cars and the joys of driving, alongside battery EVs, such as the "Nissan Leaf", "Nissan e-NV200," and "e-Power," which is equipped with an engine housing an exclusive large-capacity motor and power generator.

Nissan will continue to provide value to its customers by incorporating systems that enable the extraction of electric power from various fuels, while addressing the infrastructure issues tied to energy supply in every region of the world.

i20 Turbo Edition added to Hyundai range

Hyundai Motor UK has revealed pricing and specification details for its new i20 Turbo Edition. Designed, engineered and built in Europe, the i20 Turbo Edition will be priced from £12,975 OTR when it enters showrooms this August.

Meeting the growing trend for small capacity turbo petrol engines, the special edition i20 Turbo features Hyundai's entertaining yet efficient 100PS 1.0-litre turbocharged 3 cylinder petrol engine with CO2 emissions just 104 g/km.

Fitted with distinctive 16" alloy wheels, the special edition model will be available in a choice of six exterior colours: Polar White, Aqua Sparkling, Sleek Silver, Stardust Grey, Phantom Black and Red Passion, all with a sophisticated Black/Grey interior.

Based on the well-specified i20 SE, the sporty new i20 Turbo Edition offers Bluetooth®, DAB digital radio, cruise control with speed limiter, and a leather wrapped steering wheel with audio and phone controls as standard. The special edition builds on the SE model's specification, adding a rear view camera, automatic lights with dusk sensor, and satellite navigation via a seven-inch integrated touch screen.

With the satellite navigation upgrade, Turbo

Edition owners receive a free seven-year TomTom Live Services subscription, which provides the most up to date traffic information, speed camera alerts, weather updates, and live Point Of Interest notifications.

To coincide with the launch of the Turbo Edition, Hyundai Motor UK will be launching a new TV advertisement for the i20 which will run from August 5 – September 19. The 30 second ad will leverage our recent successes in the World rally Championship and showcase how the learnings from our motorsport team will filter down across the range over the coming years.

More tech and a sporting edge as two new value-packed Octavia models join the range

ŠKODA is adding two new trim levels to its best-selling Octavia range – SE Sport and SE Technology. Both new models offer significant equipment boosts over the standard SE models and have been created to satisfy buyer demands for the latest in-car technology and sporty design.

Priced from £19,990 OTR, the Octavia SE Sport is available in hatch and estate form and is offered with two engine options: 1.4 TSI 150PS and 1.6 TDI 110PS, with the option of a DSG gearbox on both. As part of the standard specification, SE Sport models stand out from the crowd thanks to 17-inch Denom alloy wheels, bi-xenon headlights, LED Daytime running lights with automatic activation and LED rear lights. Inside, SE Sport models feature sport seats, a Super Sport Multi-Function Steering Wheel and an automatic dimming rear view mirror, while standard technology includes Amundsen satellite navigation system with Wi-Fi and cruise control.

Despite its raft of additional equipment offered on the SE Sport, it costs just £950 more than the standard SE. That means buyers choosing the SE Sport over the SE benefit from over £3,150 of customer value over the cost of individual options.

Joining the SE Sport in the expanded Octavia line-up is a new SE Technology model. It can be specified in hatch or estate forms, and is available with four TDI diesel options with power outputs ranging from 110PS to 150PS. The 1.6 TDI 110PS engine can be specified with a DSG automatic, customers can also choose the frugal GreenLine III engine that offers exceptional economy of up to 80.7mpg on the combined cycle and CO2 emissions of 90g/km.

Like the SE Sport model, the SE Technology comes with a specification list that's bursting at the seams with equipment. Among the technology features included over the standard SE are an Amundsen satellite navigation system with Wi-Fi, a four-spoke Multifunction steering wheel, adaptive cruise control (standard cruise control on GreenLine III models) and front and rear parking sensors. The equipment list also features a Chrome pack and double-sided boot floor covering along with light and rain sensors.

The SE Technology replaces the current SE Business model and enjoys a specification that delivers significant value to company car drivers. Despite its increased specification – with options that would normally cost £1,830 on the standard SE – the SE Technology commands a premium of £275 over the outgoing model. This gives a customer saving of £1,155.

For company car drivers choosing the 1.6 TDI 110PS model, the benefits in terms of BIK payments are also significant. Drivers in the 20% tax bracket can save up to £177 a year, while drivers in the 40% tax bracket can save up to £355 when compared to the previous SE Business specified with the same additional equipment as the new SE Technology.

Chard Rangers put away five to win Tom Facey Cup

Friday, August 5th
TOM FACEY CUP

CHARD RANGERS 5

CREWKERNE RANGERS 1

CHARD Rangers bagged the first silverware offering of the season with a 5-1 win over Crewkerne Rangers to lift the Tom Facey Cup.

The convincing performance in the final of the Combe St Nicholas-hosted pre-season tournament threw down a marker for the upcoming Perry Street Division Two campaign.

Goals from Matt Gaylard (2), Simon Loader (2) and Scott Marshall secured the trophy – a victory dedicated to the memory of Tom Facey, a former schoolmate of the majority of Chard's starting 11.

A strong start from Chard provided a deserved opener when Loader headed in from a well-worked set piece, before the defender doubled the lead with his left foot from inside the box.

A Darren Contreras free-kick found the head of Gaylard who put the new-look Jocelyn Park side 3-0 up.

Crewkerne kept the game competitive after the break, but Chard remained dominant and won a penalty when Sean Druce showed good feet before he was felled in the box.

Loader stepped up to claim his hat-trick, but he was thwarted by a good save from Crewkerne's keeper.

Karl Fletcher missed a chance to extend the lead and Crewkerne broke away at the other end, finishing well to cut the deficit.

The goal only served as a wake-up call for Chard in the final ten minutes who put some gloss on the result with finishes from Gaylard and Marshall.

Chard captain Ryan Peasland said: "This may be a tournament that is a pre-cursor to the season ahead, but for Chard Rangers this year we were determined to win this trophy. Tom was a very special young man, and a great friend to many in our squad."

"He lost his battle with leukemia when we were at school together and as a team we were determined to lift this trophy for Tom and dedicate to his memory and in support of his family."

● Chard Rangers would like to thank Steve Jones, Graham Barker and all at The Phoenix Hotel for sponsoring the club's new kit.

bowls EXTRA

SEATON with Linda Stone

The extremely wet weather on Monday resulted in the first two games of the week being called off.

Fortunately the weather improved and on Wednesday the men's Over 60s matches took place. The A team played at home against Sidmouth 'A' where Seaton gained full points with a 52 to 23 shot win.

The B team played North Tawton away, winning one triple but losing overall by just three shots.

The C team were also away, at Topsham, where they won one of the triples and managed to win overall by two shots.

The week ended with two friendlies. Firstly at home against Seavalls on Thursday, August 4th, Seaton won by 78 shots to 64, and on Saturday, August 6th, against Bradninch, Seaton lost by 58 shots to 79.

FENITON with Roger Smith

In the men's Over 60s triples league the A team defeated Topsham C by 47-27. The B team lost by just one shot at home to Tiverton West End by 30-31.

The ladies enjoyed good wins firstly away to Heavitree in the over 50s league by 36-33. Later the same day, in the NBTL, they defeated Exonia by 39-26.

tee time golf news from honiton, axe cliff and cricket st thomas

HONITON with John Pawley

At last Brian Morrison's frequent visits to the club have paid off, and he now looks suitably pleased with himself following Tuesday's visit.

It's not often someone gets a hole in one during the Mixed, but he did just that on the par 3 second hole – and scored a valuable 5 Stableford points.

Brian and his playing partner, Heather Clarke, amassed a total of 40 points and were clear winners of the American Foursomes with Cherry Liell and Stan Squire coming second with 36 points.

Some way behind were Rosemary Whiteley and Paul Ritchie with 31 points and in fourth place were Maureen Tollemache and John Frith with 30 points. The Seniors' away match against Teignmouth last week produced a narrow loss of 3½-2½. As the home fixture resulted in a 5-1 win, the overall aggregate score was 8½-3½ in Honiton's favour so captain Alan Pollock was very pleased.

This present week is Work Week on the course – with great attention to the greens – and the Seniors have one home fixture with East Devon and an away fixture at Enmore GC near Bridgwater.

Last Friday's Senior competition was for the Longhurst Cup – a 3BBB Stableford comp with one score to count but off ¾ handicap.

Around 65 players turned out in the good conditions and some good scores were achieved. The rearranged tee times, to accommodate Ronnie Pew's funeral did catch some out so final groupings were slightly altered.

With a bigger field last week there were only two 25 but this week eight were recorded – all at the 2nd – by John Chew, Peter Clarke, John Ward, Bill Phillips, Mike Ward, Jim Wallis, Garth Millard and Norman Black.

The winners of the cup were the team of Peter Blake, David Woodruff and Garth Millard with a score of 45pts. Second were Fred Utting, Dave Morgan and Steve Butcher with 44 pts – ahead of Jim Wallis, Eric Short and Bill Phillips, also on 44 pts, with Phil Donne-Davis, Buzz Harris and Tom Stanton next on the same score.

CRICKET St THOMAS

with Bert Robinson

AMIDST the rain on Monday, 38 Seniors entered the A v B competition, whereby ten games were played out in a 4Ball Better Ball format.

The competitiveness between the players was fierce because of the prestige at stake and after seven games were completed, the score stood level at 31½ - 31½.

The A team won at game eight, and a half at game nine meant that there was all to play for in the final game which was narrowly won by the A team giving them victory by 6 games to 4.

Results: Tony Stenhouse & John McOmish halved with John Bonney & Gordon Hughes; Jerry Stephens & Jonny Bloy lost by 1 hole to Andy Beale & Brian Marsh; Phil Dewar & Roger Stone lost by 4 & 2 to George Willerton & Gordon Bareham; Roger Withers & George Wallace beat Brian Denning & Malcolm Roy by 5 & 3; Bill Hilson halved with Ian Fielder; Maurice Arnold & Alan Davis beat Mike Hone & John Pearce by 1 hole; Norman Markby & Stuart Pope halved with Trevor Dobson & Bryan Frost; Nobby Hodder & Martin Leigh beat Richard Forster & Mike Aldridge by 5 & 3; Barrie Heath & Bob Barrow halved with Des Denning & Tony Johnson; Keith Potter & Nick Hill beat Frank Martin & Bob White by 2 & 1.

Twelve teams of three competed for the Memorial Trophy on Wednesday which was played in the memory of the popular David Passmore who passed away earlier this year.

The format was a Texas Scramble, and in a tense finish in which five teams registered scores below 60, the trophy was won by Bill Hilson's team, playing with two new members.

Result: 1st, Bill Hilson, Mark Cording & Stuart Seery, 56.34; 2nd, Martin Bargery, Clive Fisk & Phil Dewar, 58.67; 3rd, Tony Stenhouse, Barrie Singleton & John McOmish, 59.34.

The Seniors Challenge Cup Final and the Plate competition was competed for on Friday. The ten leading players over the three previous outings were selected for the Challenge Cup with the remaining non-qualifiers competing in the Plate competition, the format for both being an individual stableford.

There was excitement on the 18th hole in the main competition with Frank Martin being one point ahead of Danny Dowell who managed a birdie to draw level, both players returning 36 points.

The birdie saw him in premier position with a better back 9. A stirring effort by Bill Hilson saw him finish one point behind in third spot.

Alan Chance finished top of the 26 entrants in the Plate competition, being two shots ahead of his nearest rivals.

Results: Seniors Challenge Cup – winner: Danny Dowell (36); runner-up: Frank Martin (36). Plate Competition – winner: Alan Chance (39); runner-up: Bob Barrow (37).

AXE CLIFF with Peter Motson

THE Ladies held their Invitation Day with lady members invited from Somerset, Relgate, Hampshire as well as Devon.

Two ladies from the other clubs played with an Axe Cliff member. The format was one score to count on the first six holes, two scores to count on the second six and all three scores to count on the last six.

The result was a win for Helen Gaudie and her two visitors, Jill Wellington and her visitors came second, 3rd place Janet Dack and 4th on countback Sandra Walker and visitors. There was just one two from Jo Donmall.

On Friday the Ladies played their last league match at The Warren where unfortunately they lost 4½ to 1½.

The Seniors played their return match at home against Bridport and won 4 games to 2.
